Policies and Dress Codes for All Boys
2006-2007

General Dress Code at All Times for All Grade Levels K-6

- Clothing must be clean, neat, unwrinkled, unfaded, and in good condition.
- No make-up or nail polish will be allowed.
- Jewelry for boys is limited to an inexpensive watch and/or a necklace with a Christian pendant.
- Hair must be neatly cut, out of the eyes and face, and off the collar.
- Absolutely NO bleached, tinted or colored hair or fad haircuts.
- Hair gel is fine, but spiked hair is not.
- No tattoos of any kind are allowed.
- Clothing should fit well, without being too snug, too big, or inappropriate in length.
- Underwear should never be visible through clothing or outside of clothing.

REGULAR UNIFORM DAYS

- General dress code policies are to be followed.
- Only the items listed in the Uniform Dress Code are allowed. Note that there is also a uniform jacket and a uniform sweatshirt. No other outer wear is acceptable.
- Belts must be worn with all non-elastic bottoms, and must be plain black, brown or tan with no design.
- Socks must be white and cover the ankle.
- Shoes must be rubber-soled and only in colors listed in the Uniform Dress Code. NO high-tops, elevated platform, character-themed or lighted shoes will be allowed. Roller-skate wheels are also not allowed.
- Colored T-shirts are not allowed under uniform shirts, even on PE days. If a T-shirt must be worn, it must be plain white and not visible.
- Shirts are to be tucked in at all times.

“FREE DRESS” DAYS

Clothing is to be neat, clean, and conservative. General dress code policies above still apply. In addition, the following rules must be followed:

- No drug, alcohol, rock music, gang-related, sexual or unchristian message are allowed on any clothing.
- Sandals must have a back-strap for safety.
- No high heels, no wheels or platform shoes.
- No clothing that exposes the midriff area.
- No clothing that exposes underwear.
- Hemlines must be at least half-way down the thigh.

Items not covered by our written guidelines will be left to the discretion of the administration.
